Job Description:

INDIANA UNIVERSITY-PURDUE UNIVERSITY, INDIANAPOLIS
FACULTY POSITIONS IN CHEMISTRY & CHEMICAL BIOLOGY

The Department of Chemistry & Chemical Biology at IUPUI (<http://chem.iupui.edu/>) invites applications for tenure-track faculty positions in: Analytical Chemistry, Biological Chemistry/Chemical Biology and Computational Chemistry, with rank open, to begin August 1, 2010.

We especially seek applicants whose research interests will support and expand the Department's efforts to complement campus-wide interdisciplinary research programs in the life and health sciences, including ongoing collaborative efforts with the on campus IU School of Medicine.

Applicants must hold Ph.D.s in Chemistry or a related discipline, demonstrate the ability to initiate and sustain an externally funded program of research and be able to teach effectively, at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Each applicant at the Associate or Full Professor level must have a demonstrated record of research excellence, a history of external funding and a strong record of mentoring students.
