arithmetic geometry and number theory. The appointment term is at full-time for three years, with an annual salary of $65,384. Duties include participating in the research group activities, such as taking an active part in seminars and research related events of the group, teaching with a reduced teaching load of one course per semester, and conducting research. Please note that the teaching component of this position is conducted under the lecturer title. The primary research element is funded by the NSF grant in the postdoctoral scholar title.

Basic Qualifications:

Applicants must have completed all PhD (or equivalent international degree) requirements, except the dissertation, by the time of application.

Required Qualifications (by start date):

A PhD (or equivalent international degree) is required by the start date of the job. The NSF requires that applicants be citizens, nationals, or permanent residents of the United States, its territories, or possessions.

Preferred Qualifications:

A PhD (or equivalent international degree) in Pure Mathematics. Candidates whose research contributes to specific fields of arithmetic geometry and number theory are strongly preferred.

APPLICATIONS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED ONLINE via AP Recruit:

<https://aprecruit.berkeley.edu/apply/JPF02334>

Applicants must ask three reviewers to submit letters of evaluation through <https://aprecruit.berkeley.edu/apply/JPF02334>. Letter writers will receive URL from the online application system to upload their letters. It is the responsibility of the applicant to make sure that letters of recommendation are requested and submitted in the online application system. Applicants should ensure that letters of evaluation are posted by the application deadline. All letters will be treated as confidential per University of California policy and California state law. Please refer potential referees, including those whose letters are provided via a third party (i.e., dossier service or career center), to the UC Berkeley statement of confidentiality: <http://apo.berkeley.edu/evalltr.html> prior to submitting their letters.”

Applications must be received on or by December 1, 2019. Please direct questions to Alev Hatay at recruit@math.berkeley.edu.
