Job Description

Lecturer - Energy and Resources Group

The Energy and Resources Group (ERG) at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a pool of qualified temporary lecturers to teach courses in the areas of energy and resources from a wide variety of disciplines, should an opening arise. ERG has a long and distinguished history of interdisciplinary research and teaching for a sustainable environment and an equitable society. Further information about ERG, including courses taught, can be found at \[url=https://apptrkr.com/get_redirect.php?id=1780850&targetURL=http://erg.berkeley.edu rel="nofollow"]<http://erg.berkeley.edu>.

Screening of applicants is ongoing and will continue as needed. The number of positions varies from semester to semester, depending upon the needs of the department. Appointments are typically part-time and may be renewable based on need, funding, and performance.

General Duties: In addition to teaching responsibilities, general duties include holding office hours, assigning grades, advising students, preparing course materials (e.g., syllabus), and maintaining a course website.

Basic Qualifications: Ph.D. (or equivalent international degree), or enrolled in Ph.D. (or equivalent international degree) granting program at the time of application.

Additional Qualifications: Ph.D., or equivalent international degree, is required by the start date of the job.

Preferred Qualifications: College-level teaching experience is preferred.

Salary: Commensurate with experience.

The Energy and Resources Group is interested in candidates who will contribute to diversity and equal opportunity in higher education through their teaching or research. UC Berkeley has an excellent benefits package as well as a number of policies and programs to support employees as they balance work and family, if applicable.

To apply, please go to the following link: [url=https://apptrkr.com/1780850" rel="nofollow]https://aprecruit.berkeley.edu/JPF02174 Applicants should include the names and contact information of three references. Letters of reference may be requested of finalists. When and if the Energy and Resources Group contacts references, all letters will be treated as confidential per University of California policy and California state law. Please refer potential referees, including when letters are provided via a third party (i.e., dossier service or career center), to the UC Berkeley statement of confidentiality ([url=https://apptrkr.com/get_redirect.php?id=1780850&targetURL=http://apo.berkeley.edu/evalltr.html" rel="nofollow]http://apo.berkeley.edu/evalltr.html) prior to submitting their letters.

Applications will be accepted and reviewed for Energy and Resources Group needs, through April 29, 2020. Applications are typically reviewed for fall course needs in April/May, for spring course needs in October/November, and for summer session course needs in January/February. Those interested in remaining in the pool after April 29, 2020 will need to reapply.

Please note: The use of a lecturer pool does not guarantee that an open position exists. See the review date specified in AP Recruit to learn whether the department is currently reviewing applications for a specific position. If there is no future review date specified, your application may not be considered at this time.
