level are preferred, exceptional candidates at the tenured associate professor or professor levels will also be considered.

Qualifications

Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Physics, Applied Physics, or related areas by the start date of the appointment. Applicants for this position at the tenure-track Assistant Professor and Associate Professor levels must have the potential to do pioneering research and to teach effectively. Applicants for this position at the tenured Associate or Full Professor level must have a demonstrated record of outstanding research accomplishments, excellent teaching credentials, and established leadership in the field.

Candidates at all levels must be able to demonstrate the ability to develop a highly successful and internationally recognized independent research program and to participate effectively in the teaching of our core applied physics curriculum at the undergraduate and graduate level. Columbia encourages multi-disciplinary research and collaborations across academic units on the campus. The Department is particularly interested in qualified candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the university community.

Application Instructions

Applications should be submitted electronically to apply.interfolio.com/116267

Candidates should submit electronically the following: curriculum vitae (including a list of publications), a research statement (description of research accomplishments and planned research), a statement of teaching interests and plans, three letters of recommendation from experts in the candidate's field, and up to three pre/reprints of scholarly work. All applications received by December 1, 2022 will receive full consideration. Inquiries should be directed to apam@columbia.edu with reference number 116267
