in refereed journals, and actively engage in promoting the growth of the UAE University. Candidates will be required to teach Biochemistry and General Chemistry courses at undergraduate and graduate levels. The candidate must have a publication track record in top-tier journals. Experience in securing research grants, and student supervision will be an advantage. Qualified candidates at all levels will be considered at a rank commensurate with academic accomplishments. The candidate is also expected to participate in the department's administrative services as well as community activities. Candidates applying will need to arrange three letters of recommendation. The position will remain open until filled.

Job eligibility: The following criteria need to be met before you apply for this job:

- The candidate must have a PhD in the area of Biochemistry or a related field
- Potential candidates are expected to have a minimum of two years of experience in teaching.
- The candidate must have studied or worked in a university that is ranked in the top 300, as determined by the latest QS or THE-World University Ranking systems.
- The candidate must have a considerable number of Q1 publications as determined by the Scimago Journal Ranking system.

A successful application will include the following five documents: Incomplete applications will not be shortlisted.
