Position description

The Department of Earth and Planetary Science at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor Faculty position. We welcome candidates from all areas of Earth and Planetary Science, with an emphasis on, but not limited to:

- Ocean Science broadly defined and on all time scales (past, present, and future)
- Geophysics and interior processes
- The interface of Earth Science and mineral, energy, and water resources.

Candidates whose research falls into one of these broad areas or their disciplinary interfaces are especially encouraged to apply.

Earth and Planetary Science is committed to advancing equity, inclusion, non-discrimination, and belonging consistent with the University's principles of community, at all levels, from faculty hiring to graduate admissions to undergraduate teaching and is dedicated to advancing equity and accessibility for all who are, or wish to be, members of our community. We are committed to addressing the family needs of faculty, including dual career couples and single parents. We are also interested in candidates who have had non-traditional career paths or who have taken time off for family reasons, or who have achieved excellence in careers outside academia. For information about potential relocation to Berkeley, or career needs of accompanying partners and spouses, please visit:

advancement, application, and transmission of knowledge and creative endeavors through academic excellence, where all individuals who participate in University programs and activities can work and learn together in a safe and secure environment, free of violence, harassment, discrimination, exploitation, or intimidation. Consistent with this commitment, UC Berkeley requires all applicants for Senate faculty positions to complete, sign, and upload an Authorization of Information Release form into AP Recruit as part of their application. If an applicant does not include the signed authorization, the application will be considered incomplete, and as with any incomplete application, will not receive further consideration. Although all applicants for faculty recruitments must complete the entire application, applicants will only be subject to reference checks if and when they are selected as the candidate to whom the hiring unit would like to extend a formal offer.
