The newly established Graduate CSE Department includes programs in Computer Science, AI, Data Analytics and Visualization, and Cybersecurity, as well as the Katz School's Internet of Things (IoT) Lab and Security Operation Center (SOC). It focuses on core computer science and engineering areas, while also emphasizing interdisciplinary research, particularly in fields like medical AI. Our faculty are active in research and industry—with grants from NSF, NIH, DoT, other federal agencies and companies—and are equally committed to mentoring students. The Katz School of Science and Health is Yeshiva University's flagship school for STEM. We are research scientists, tech builders and patient-centered clinicians working on problems that matter.

More information about the Katz School can be found at https://www.yu.edu/katz.

Yeshiva University is an equal opportunity employer committed to hiring minorities, women, individuals with disabilities and protected veterans.
