Job Description

The Department of Mathematics & Statistics at Old Dominion University invites applications for a position specializing in Applied Mathematics to begin in Fall 2025. We are especially looking for faculty whose research is in an area of applied mathematics that complements and enhances the existing research groups in applied mathematics are especially encouraged to apply. This is an open rank (at the Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor rank), annual 10-month tenure track/tenured appointment, with initial rank commensurate with experience.

The position carries a teaching load of 2 courses/semester, with a reduced course load during the first two years to support the establishment of a strong research program. In addition to teaching, the appointee will actively pursue external research grants and supervise Ph.D. student research. Undergraduate research supervision and interdisciplinary research collaboration with other researchers at ODU or with external partners are also encouraged.
