The Department of Biology, Health, and the Environment (BHE) at the University of Texas at San Antonio (UT San Antonio) invites applications for the position of Department Chair beginning August 1, 2026. BHE is a leader in innovative science education, integrating transformative educational programs with interdisciplinary research that explores connections between human, animal, plant, and environmental health within the One Health framework.

We seek an exceptional leader with a demonstrated commitment to excellence in teaching and mentoring, as well as a strong record of interdisciplinary research. The successful candidate will foster innovations in undergraduate and graduate education while supporting and elevating the department's research productivity. The Chair will work collaboratively with faculty to implement a shared vision of excellence and student success through horizontal and vertical curriculum alignment, as well as cutting-edge pedagogical approaches.

Interested applicants can submit their application package to the Talent Acquisition website at

https://zahr-prd-candidate-

. The application package should include: (1) a cover letter highlighting the candidate's professional development and leadership vision with regards to research and teaching, (2) a Curriculum Vitae, (3) complete contact information for at least three professional references, and (4) statements summarizing the applicants research activities, teaching statement, and vision for the Department of Biology, Health, and the Environment. Review of the completed applications will begin immediately and will continue until position is filled, with priority being given to applicants who submit completed packets by January 5, 2026. Applicants selected for interviews must show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by the time of hire. This position requires the ability to maintain the security and integrity of UT San Antonio and its infrastructure.

As an equal employment opportunity and affirmative action employer, it is the policy of The University of Texas at San Antonio to promote and ensure equal employment opportunity for all individuals regardless of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability or genetic information, and veteran status. The University is committed to the Affirmative Action Program in compliance with all government requirements to ensure nondiscrimination. Compensation will be commensurate with experience. UT San Antonio employees enjoy a competitive, comprehensive, and family-friendly benefit package.
