Job Description

David Blittersdorf Professor of Sustainability Science and Policy

Image not found or type unknown

The University of Vermont seeks to fill an Endowed Professorship focused on interdisciplinary research on renewable energy systems. The position will be part of the Rubenstein School of Environment and Natural Resources (RSENr), and we anticipate close ties (and a possible secondary appointment) with UVM's College of Engineering and Mathematical Sciences (CEMS). Ideal candidates will have a record of a) scholarship that engages with both academic and non-academic partners and b) involvement in discussions related to energy and climate change at multiple scales and in multiple fora.
